

What is FXstyle-Templates.com?

FXstyle-Templates.com is a division of FXstyle Studio, Ltd. We provide our customers with high quality website products with a lifetime membership for a rock bottom price of $39.95.

What makes FXstyle-Templates.com different to other sites?

Instead of only swapping out the images which is what most other sites do, we create design templates that are each unique. You won't find designs at our site that are similar to each other. We want each user to be able to find the design they like and this makes it much easier. Our templates are periodically replaced with new ones when they reach a certain numbers of downloads.

What is a Web template?

A web template is a pre-made webdesign for your website. By using a web template you can have a professional website done in minutes. Just insert your text, a logo, change button names if necessary and the website is ready to use! As easy as that! It's perfect for beginners, experts and everyone in between. It's the ideal tool for web publishing professionals, printers, designers, web designers and multimedia designers.

What kind of format are these templates in?

All of our products are user-friendly, easy to customize and available in Photoshop (psd), HTML, Flash (fla), Cascading Style Sheets (css), PowerPoint (pot), Word Document (dot), Excel (xlt) and Illustrator (ai) formats.

What software do I need to work with your products?

In order to work with our templates you'll need an html editor (Dreamweaver, Frontpage, Homesite, etc.). To modify the graphics, you'll need Adobe Photoshop or software that has the ability to open PSD files. Flash products can be edited using Adobe Flash.

May I use everything for just $39.95?

Yes. If you purchase a membership at FXstyle-Templates.com you are free to download as much as you want from the site for a lifetime. The order fee is a one-off fee. You will only be charged $39.95 once for a lifetime account. There are no other costs involved, no monthly fees or yearly fees.
